

Table of Contents

List of Contributors	9
Foreword – Sagarica Delgoda	24
Preface – Paikiasothy Saravanamuttu	26
Editor's Introduction – Asanga Welikala	29

VOLUME 1

Part I – Constitutional History

1. Reflections on the Making and Content of the 1972 Constitution: An Insider's Perspective – Nihal Jayawickrama	43
2. The 1972 Republican Constitution of Sri Lanka in the Postcolonial Constitutional Evolution of Sri Lanka – Radhika Coomaraswamy	125
3. The Failure of Jennings' Constitutional Experiment in Ceylon: How 'Procedural Entrenchment' led to Constitutional Revolution – Asanga Welikala	145
4. Buddhism and the Constitution: The Historiography and Postcolonial Politics of Section 6 – Benjamin Schonthal	201
5. Conflicted Solidarities? Muslims and the Constitution-making Process of 1970-72 – Farzana Haniffa	219
6. Sinhalaeness and its Reproduction, 1232-1818 – Michael Roberts	253

Part II – Constitutional Theory

7. Sovereignty and the 1972 Constitution – 289
Hallie Ludsin
8. The Left and the 1972 Constitution: Marxism and State Power – 341
Kumar David
9. A Game of Mirrors: Constitutionalism and Exceptionalism in a Context of Nationalist Hegemony – 364
David Rampton
10. Republican Constitutionalism and Sinhalese Buddhist Nationalism in Sri Lanka: Towards an Ontological Account of the Sri Lankan State – 402
Roshan de Silva Wijeyeratne
11. Beyond the Unitary Conception of the United Kingdom Constitution – 441
Neil Walker
12. Parliamentary Sovereignty and Written Constitutions in Comparative Perspective – 476
Cheryl Saunders and Anna Dzedzic
13. Sub-State Nations and the Constitutional State: Embedding Normative Principles within a Plurinational Constitution – 507
Stephen Tierney
14. Revolutions and Institutions: Political Violence and Sri Lanka's 1972 Constitution – 531
David C. Williams
15. On the Republic at Forty, Culture at One-Forty – 562
Qadri Ismail
16. Whose Nation? Power, Agency, Gender and Tamil Nationalism – 612
Ambika Satkunanathan