

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction 3

I

Judicial Authority in the National System

1. Foreign Relations as Shared Federal Relations:
Eighteenth-Century Prologue 13
2. From Constitutional to Statutory Authority: Federal Jurisdiction over Nonstate Offenders 26
3. Federal Questions, Human Rights, and Terrorism 59
4. Judicial Authority over Nation-State Offenders 90
5. The Separation of Powers in Human Rights and Terrorism Cases 102
6. Legislative Prescriptions: Twenty-first Century Epilogue 127

II

Domestic Jurisdiction in the World Legal Order

7. Federal Courts as Global Actors 151
8. Universal Jurisdiction 163
9. The Human Rights Paradigm 194

Conclusion 211

Notes 213

Index 283