

Scholarship Commission in the United Kingdom awarded me a Scholarship for three years teneable at the University of Cambridge. I had the privilege of commencing this investigation in Cambridge under the guidance of Professor S. J. Bailey. I continually benefited from his wide knowledge of the laws of England, particularly of Equity and Trusts. Mr. C. W. Crawley and Dr. F. Fallside, successive Tutors for Research Students at Trinity Hall, Cambridge went out of their way to assist me on many occasions. Professor T. Nadaraja, Dean of the Faculty of Law of the University of Ceylon, Colombo helped me in many ways during the time I was in Cambridge.

Mr. M. C. Sansoni, the Hon. Dr. C. G. Weeramantry, and Messrs D. C. Amerasinghe, S. S. Basnayake, S. R. de Silva, Lakshman Peiris, S. Ruthiramoorthy, M. Sanmugnathan, Ravi Tennekoon and Neelan Tiruchelvam read the manuscript and offered many valuable criticisms and comments and pointed out omissions. I am particularly indebted to Mr. M. C. Sansoni who carefully read my manuscript twice. I owe much to Miss Sriyanganie Fernando who spent many hours performing the wearisome task of correcting the proofs and compiling the table of cases with thoroughness and efficiency. Messers. Roy Fernando, Ananda Jayawardene, Charitha Ratwatte, S. Ruthiramoorthy, Dennis Silva, A.J.I. Tilakawardene and Paduma Wijeratne also rendered valuable assistance in the correction of proofs. Mr. Austin Pulle took a big lead off my hands by preparing the Index, a job he performed with admirable competence. Mr. John Kitto, Mrs. Joyce Fernando and Miss T. Dole assisted me in the typing and preparation of the manuscript. To all of them I owe more than a mere acknowledgement of this nature. Finally, I must express to my wife, my apologies for the inconveniences which a household suffers in the course of the preparation of a work of this nature, and my thanks for the help rendered in so many different ways.

L. J. MARK COORAY

Ceylon Law College,
Hultsdorf,
Colombo, Ceylon.
14 February 1971.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

FOREWORD	iii
PREFACE	iv
TABLE OF CONTENTS	vii
ABBREVIATIONS USED IN THE CITATION OF CEYLON LAW REPORTS AND JOURNALS	xvi
LIST OF AUTHORITIES AND METHOD OF CITATION	xvii
LIST OF STATUTES CITED	xix
LIST OF CASES CITED	xxi

THE INTRODUCTION

A BRIEF SURVEY OF THE LAWS AND LEGAL INSTITUTIONS OF CEYLON

THE DIFFERENT SYSTEMS OF LAW IN FORCE IN CEYLON	1
THE RECEPTION OF ENGLISH LAW BY STATUTE	3
THE RECEPTION OF ENGLISH LAW THROUGH JUDICIAL LEGISLATION	5
THE EXTENT OF THE RECEPTION OF ENGLISH LAW	8
THE SOURCES OF THE LAWS OF CEYLON	11
LAW REPORTS, DIGESTS AND TEXT BOOKS	11

CHAPTER I

DEFINITIONS, SOURCES AND EXPLANATIONS

1. THE CHARACTERISTICS OF A TRUST	13
2. THE MIGRATION OF THE TRUST	14
3. THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE TRUST	14
4. THE SOURCES OF THE CEYLON LAW OF TRUSTS	14
4.a. The Trusts Ordinance, 9 of 1917—14
4.b. Judicial decisions—14
4.c. Official documents—15
4.d. Ceylon Literature on Trusts—15
5. THE NATURE AND EXTENT OF THE PRESENT INVESTIGATION	16

CHAPTER II

THE INTRODUCTION OF TRUSTS INTO CEYLON

6. INTRODUCTION OF TRUSTS 1796-1833	19
7. THE INTRODUCTION OF TRUSTS 1833-1917	21
7.a. Judicial or legislative initiatives?—21
7.b. The Judicial incorporation of the law of trusts—22
7.c. The extent of the incorporation of the law of trusts prior to 1918—24
7.d. The decline of the popularity of the trust—27
7.e. Why did trusts decline in popularity?—27
8. THE GENEALOGY OF THE TRUSTS ORDINANCE	28
9. THE NEED FOR TRUSTS LEGISLATION	29
10. THE RETROSPECTIVE OPERATION OF THE TRUSTS ORDINANCE	29

THE RELEVANCE OF THE PRE-ORDINANCE CASE LAW	33
a. The meaning of define and amend—33
b. The pre-1918 statute law and the Trusts Ordinance—33
c. The pre-1918 case law and the Trusts Ordinance—33

CHAPTER III

INTERPRETATION OF THE TRUSTS ORDINANCE

THE RELEVANCE OF ENGLISH AUTHORITIES - INTRODUCTORY COMMENTS	36
ENGLISH DECISIONS IN THE INTERPRETATION OF SECTIONS OF THE ORDINANCE	37
13.a. Statute is the supreme source of law—37
13.b. English decisions in the interpretation of a section copied from an English statute—37
13.c. English decisions in the interpretation of a section codifying the principles of equity—39
THE APPLICATION OF ENGLISH LAW UNDER SECTION 2 IN THE EVENT OF A CASUS OMISSUS	43
14.a. Section 2 of the Trusts Ordinance—43
14.b. "All matters with reference to any trust....."—44
14.c. "All matters...with reference to any obligation in the nature of a trust arising or resulting by implication or construction of law....."—45
14.d. English principles are applicable only where "there is no specific provision in this or any other enactment"—45
14.e. "...the principles of equity...in force in the High Court of Justice in England"—47
14.f. "...for the time being in force in the High Court of Justice in England"—50
14.g. The binding force of decisions of the English Courts—54
14.h. Section 2 does not introduce the English law of persons or property—55
14.i. Synopsis—55
1. THE APPLICATION OF ENGLISH LAW UNDER SECTIONS 100 AND 111	56
5. A PROBLEM RELATING TO STARE DECISIS	57
7. STATUTORY INTERPRETATION	57
*3. THE RELEVANCE OF INDIAN AUTHORITIES	57

CHAPTER IV

CLASSIFICATION AND DEFINITION OF TRUSTS

19. CLASSIFICATION OF TRUSTS	58
19.a. Express, informal, resulting, constructive and statutory trusts—58
19.b. Completely and incompletely constituted trusts—60
19.c. Other classifications—64
20. DEFINITION OF A TRUST	64

20.a. Section 3(a) of the Trusts Ordinance—64
20.b. The distinction between a trust and comparable legal institutions—66
20.c. The trust and the fideicommissum—67
20.d. Trust and modus —74
20.e. Trust and condition—74
20.f. Trust compared to the foundation and benami —75
21. THE "INTERPRETATION" SECTION	75

CHAPTER V

THE CREATION OF TRUSTS

22. ELEMENTS IN THE CREATION OF A TRUST	78
23. CAPACITY OF THE PARTIES TO A TRUST	78
23.a. Capacity of settlor—78
23.b. Capacity to be a trustee—79
23.c. Capacity to be a beneficiary—80
24. THE CERTAINTIES FOR THE CREATION OF A TRUST	80
24.a. The three certainties—80
24.b. Intention to create a trust—81
24.c. The beneficiary and the purpose of the trust—83
24.d. The trust property—86
24.e. Effect of absence of certainties—86
24.f. Section 2 not relevant in the creation of trusts—88
25. THE RULES AGAINST PERPETUITIES	88
25.a. Preliminary—88
25.b. The rule against remoteness of vesting—88
25.c. The rule against indefinite duration—90
25.d. The rule against accumulations—90
25.e. A historical note—99
26. TRUSTS FOR UNLAWFUL PURPOSES	91
26.a. What is an unlawful trust?—91
26.b. The effect of an unlawful trust—92
26.c. The destination of the purported trust property in the case of an unlawful trust under chapter II of the Trusts Ordinance—92
26.d. The destination of the purported trust property in the case of an unlawful trust under chapter IX of the Trusts Ordinance—93
27. EXECUTION OF THE TRUST	99
27.a. The relevant statutory provisions—99
27.b. Creation of trusts of immovable property—100
27.c. Creation of trusts of movable property—100
27.d. Exceptions to the formal requirements—101

CHAPTER VI

TRUSTS OF IMMOVABLE PROPERTY AND SECTIONS TWO AND FOUR OF THE FRAUDS ORDINANCE

28. INTRODUCTORY	102
29. SECTION 2 OF THE FRAUDS ORDINANCE	103
29.a. Section 2 applies to contracts and conveyances—103
29.b. A comparison with the English Statute of Frauds—103
29.c. The scope of the present chapter—104
29.d. Sections 91 and 92 of the Evidence Ordinance—104
30. VALIDITY OF NON-NOTARIAL TRUSTS RELATING TO LAND BEFORE 1918	105
31. VALIDITY OF NON-NOTARIAL TRUSTS RELATING TO LAND AFTER 1918	107
31.a. Trusts created under chapter II of the Trusts Ordinance—107
31.b. Trusts arising under chapter IX of the Trusts Ordinance—110
32. VALIDITY OF OTHER NON-NOTARIAL TRANSACTIONS RELATING TO LAND	112
33. FRAUD	113
33.a. Fraud and section 2—113
33.b. What constitutes Fraud?—113
34. THE TRANSFER OF A BENEFICIAL INTEREST UNDER A TRUST	114
35. PARTNERSHIPS AND TRUSTS	115
36. SECRET TRUSTS	117
36.a. Terminology—117
36.b. English Law—117
36.c. Ceylon law—118
37. POLICY CONSIDERATIONS	121

CHAPTER VII

TRUSTS ARISING UNDER SECTIONS 83 TO 96 OF THE TRUSTS ORDINANCE

38. AN OBLIGATION IN THE NATURE OF A TRUST	124
39. CONSTRUCTIVE AND RESULTING TRUSTS IN ENGLAND AND CEYLON	124
40. TRANSFER OR BEQUEST WITHOUT DISPOSAL OF THE BENEFICIAL INTEREST (SECTION 83)	125
40.a. Analysis of the words of section 83—125
40.b. Does section 83 include an agreement to reconvey?—127
40.c. Does a mortgage fall within 83?—130
40.d. Other cases arising under section 83—130
40.e. Suggested amendments to 83—131
41. PURCHASE IN THE NAME OF ANOTHER (SECTION 84)	131
41.a. English law and section 84—131
41.b. The words "...a consideration paid or provided..."—131
41.c. Where a number of persons provide the consideration—133

41.d. Other situations arising under 84—134
41.e. Factors pertinent to sections 83 and 84—134
41.f. An analogous Roman-Dutch rule—135
41.g. Pre-1918 law—135
41.h. Suggested amendments to 84—136
42. THE PRESUMPTION OF ADVANCEMENT	136
42.a. The presumption of advancement and sections 83 and 84—136
42.b. Rebutting the presumption—137
42.c. Benami transactions—138
43. SURPLUS WHERE TRUST FAILS (SECTION 85)	138
44. TRANSFER OR BEQUEST FOR AN ILLEGAL PURPOSE (SECTIONS 86 AND 87(1))	138
45. BEQUEST OF WHICH REVOCATION IS PREVENTED BY DURESS (SECTION 87 (2))	139
46. TRANSFER PURSUANT TO A RESCINDABLE CONTRACT (SECTION 88)	139
47. DEBTOR BECOMING CREDITOR'S REPRESENTATIVE (SECTION 89)	141
48. ADVANTAGE GAINED BY A FIDUCIARY (SECTION 90)	141
48.a. Section 90 compared with English principles—141
48.b. Categories of persons subject to section 90—143
48.c. A "pecuniary advantage"—144
48.d. May the presumption be rebutted—144
48.e. Termination of the fiduciary relationship—144
49. ADVANTAGE GAINED BY UNDUE INFLUENCE (SECTION 91)	144
49.a. Undue influence in English law—144
49.b. Undue influence in the law of Ceylon before 1918—145
49.c. Undue influence under the Trusts Ordinance—145
49.d. Undue influence, laches and the Prescription Ordinance—147
49.e. Undue influence and the Money Lending Ordinance—147
49.f. Sections 90, 91 and 92 overlap—147
50. ADVANTAGE GAINED BY A QUALIFIED OWNER (SECTION 92)	148
51. PROPERTY ACQUIRED WITH NOTICE OF AN EXISTING CONTRACT (SECTION 93)	149
51.a. The essential elements—149
51.b. An existing contract—149
51.c. Acquires property subject to a contract of which specific performance could be enforced—149
51.d. Transferee must have notice—150
51.e. Registration essential where contract affects immovable property—150
51.f. The pre-1918 law—150
52. PURCHASE BY PERSON CONTRACTING TO BUY PROPERTY TO BE HELD ON TRUST (SECTION 94)	151
53. ADVANTAGE SECRETLY GAINED BY CREDITOR (SECTION 95)	151
54. RESIDUARY TRUSTS ARISING WHERE A PERSON IS IN POSSESSION OF PROPERTY (SECTION 96)	152
55. OTHER TYPES OF TRUSTS	154

Different categories of trusts—154
Holder of fund raised by public subscription is a trustee—154
Purported settlor of charitable trust, where there is no valid transfer to a trustee, is a trustee—155
Does transfer to or purchase in the name of a Buddhist priest raise a presumption of trust for temple?—156
Agent purchasing with vilasam —157
Partner purchasing with partnership funds—158
Person unlawfully receiving trust property—158
Trusts between debtors and creditors—158
Is judgement debtor after fiscal's sale a trustee?—158
Customs giving rise to trusts—159
Miscellaneous trusts—159
RESULTING AND CONSTRUCTIVE TRUSTS OF ENGLISH LAW ONLY IN THE EVENT OF A CASUS OMISSUS UNDER SECTION 2	160

CHAPTER VIII

CHARITABLE TRUSTS

THE LAW RELATING TO CHARITIES BEFORE 1918	161
THE ROMAN-DUTCH AND HINDU LAW RELATING TO CHARITIES	163
SECTION 107 OF THE TRUSTS ORDINANCE	164
SECTION 99 OF THE TRUSTS ORDINANCE	165
a. The definition of charity—165
b. The word "includes" in 99—165
c. The requirement of certainty of beneficiary in a charitable trust—165
d. The definition of charity and the test of public benefit are distinct—167
THE LEGAL DEFINITION OF CHARITY	169
THE TEST OF PUBLIC BENEFIT	170
MEASURES FOR CARRYING INTO EFFECT CHARITABLE TRUSTS	171
3.a. The scope of sections 101 and 102—171
3.b. Exclusion of certain trusts from the operation of sections 101 and 102—172
3.c. Technical objections—173
3.d. The application of sections 101 and 102 to Hindu Temporalities—173
THE CY-PRES DOCTRINE	174
DIFFERENCES BETWEEN CHARITABLE AND OTHER TRUSTS	174
CONCLUSIONS	175

CHAPTER IX

THE BENEFICIARY

THE RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES OF THE BENEFICIARY	176
THE BENEFICIARY'S RIGHTS AGAINST THE TRUSTEE	176
68.a. The rule in Saunders v. Vautier —176

68.b. Actions by a beneficiary against a trustee—177
69. THE BENEFICIARY'S RIGHT TO FOLLOW TRUST PROPERTY	178
69.a. The nature of the right—178
69.b. Sections 65 to 69 of the Trusts Ordinance—178
69.c. The application of English law in the event of a casus omissus —179
69.d. Is the transferee a constructive trustee?—179
70. FOLLOWING TRUST PROPERTY INTO THE HANDS OF A TRUSTEE	180
70.a. Wrongful purchase by the trustee—180
70.b. Proceeds of trust property in trustee's hands—180
71. FOLLOWING TRUST PROPERTY INTO THE HANDS OF A STRANGER	181
71.a. Section 65(1)—181
71.b. Section 65 does not give rise to a constructive trust—183
71.c. The bona fide purchaser for value without notice—183
71.d. Consideration—183
71.e. Notice—184
71.f. Mixing trust money—185
71.g. Following trust property into partnership assets—186
71.h. Other matters arising with reference to sections 65 and 66—186
71.i. Effect of statutory titles on operation of sections 65 and 66—186
72. FOLLOWING TRUST PROPERTY INTO THE HANDS OF ANOTHER BENEFICIARY	186
73. THE NATURE OF THE INTERESTS OF THE BENEFICIARY AND THE TRUSTEE	187
74. IS THE INTEREST OF A BENEFICIARY A RIGHT IN REM OR A RIGHT IN PERSONAM?	189

CHAPTER X

MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS RELATING TO TRUSTS

75. TRUSTS OF LAND AND THE REGISTRATION ORDINANCES	191
76. TRUSTS AND THE PRESCRIPTION ORDINANCE	192
76.a. The Prescription Ordinance 1871—192
76.b. Section 111 of the Trusts Ordinance—192
76.c. The Prescription Ordinance applies to all types of actions—193
76.d. The meaning of "express trustee"—193
76.e. Sections 111(2) and (3)—197
76.f. Prescription runs from date of interference with beneficiary's rights—197
76.g. The sections of the Prescription Ordinance which apply to trusts—197
76.h. Is a transferee from a trustee subject to 111 (1)?—200
76.i. Equitable relief, laches , acquiescence and concurrence—200
76.j. Trustee prescribing to trust property—203
76.k. Trustee prescribing to property adjacent to trust property—203
76.l. Beneficiary prescribing to trust property—204
76.m. Stranger prescribing to trust property—204

76.n.	Prescription and charitable trusts—	204
76.o.	Section 65(1) and acquisition of a prescriptive title—	205
76.p.	Prescription and trusts before 1918—	205
76.q.	Is section 111 retrospective?—	205
77.	TRUSTS AND THE PARTITION STATUTES	206
77.a.	The partition statutes—	206
77.b.	A trustee may institute a partition action—	206
77.c.	A beneficiary may intervene in a partition action—	207
77.d.	Can a beneficiary initiate a partition action?—	207
77.e.	The effect of a decree of partition on an existing trust—	208
77.f.	The effect of a transfer by a trustee who had obtained a partition decree—	210
77.g.	The effect of a decree of sale on an existing trust—	212
77.h.	The effect of a partition decree obtained by a transferee from a trustee who is bound by the trust—	214
77.i.	Trusts arising consequent to a partition decree, where the decree holder was never a trustee—	214
78.	TRUSTEE FRAUDULENTLY OBTAINING STATUTORY CERTIFICATE OF TITLE	215
79.	TRUSTS ARISING CONSEQUENT TO A STATUTORY CERTIFICATE OF TITLE	215
79.a.	Where the trust arises under section 84 of the Trusts Ordinance—	215
79.b.	Where the trust arises under sections 90 and 92 of the Trusts Ordinance—	216
79.c.	The purchaser from the trustee—	217
79.d.	Other situations which have arisen involving trusts and statutory titles—	218
79.e.	Conclusions—	218
80.	EXECUTION AGAINST THE TRUST PROPERTY AND THE BENEFICIAL INTEREST	218
80.a.	Execution against trust property for the debts of the trustee—	218
80.b.	Execution against trust property for the debts of the trust estate—	220
80.c.	Execution against trust property for the debts of the beneficiary—	222
80.d.	Execution against the beneficial interest—	225
81.	INSOLVENCY OF THE TRUSTEE	225
82.	THE PLACE OF PAYMENT	225
	SECTIONS 114 to 117	226
	EXTINCTION OF TRUSTS	226
	INTERACTION BETWEEN THE LAW OF TRUSTS AND THE OTHER THE LAND	226
	CHAPTER XI
	TRUSTEES
86.	THE SCOPE OF THE CHAPTER	227

87.	HOW TRUSTEESHIP ARISES AND TERMINATES	228
87.a.	Acceptance and disclaimer—	228
87.b.	Discharge, dismissal and appointment of trustees—	229
87.c.	Vesting of trust property in the trustees—	229
87.d.	Right of succeeding trustee to continue action—	231
88.	THE CARE REQUIRED FROM A TRUSTEE	232
89.	BREACH OF TRUST
89.a.	Liability for breach of trust—	232
89.b.	What constitutes a breach of trust—	233
89.c.	Gain from a breach of trust—	233
89.d.	The liability of a succeeding trustee—	233
89.e.	The liability of a retiring trustee—	233
89.f.	The liability of the estate of a deceased trustee—	234
89.g.	Exemption from liability—	234
90.	CO-TRUSTEES
90.a.	The number of trustees—	235
90.b.	The liability of one co-trustee for the acts of another—	235
90.c.	The liability of a co-trustee to a beneficiary—	235
90.d.	Contribution and indemnity—	235
90.e.	The position of the trustee-beneficiary—	236
90.f.	The unanimity rule—	236
91.	TRUSTEE MAY NOT PROFIT FROM TRUST	237
91.a.	The general principle—	237
91.b.	Purchase, mortgage or lease of trust property by trustee—	237
91.c.	Trustee for purchase—	238
91.d.	Co-trustees may not lend to each other—	238
91.e.	Purchase of beneficial interest—	239
91.f.	Gratuitous service—	239
92.	INVESTMENT, LEASE, SALE OR MORTGAGE OF TRUST PROPERTY	239
92.a.	Investment of trust money—	239
92.b.	Lease of trust property—	240
92.c.	Alienation of immovable trust property—	240
93.	DELEGATION BY A TRUSTEE	241
94.	VARIATION OF THE TRUST	241
95.	APPLICATION TO COURT FOR OPINION IN MANAGEMENT OF TRUST	242
96.	THE APPLICATION OF SECTION 2	243
97.	THE OFFICE OF TRUSTEE IN ENGLAND AND CEYLON	244
98.	OTHER SECTIONS RELATING TO TRUSTEES	244

CHAPTER XII

CONCLUSIONS

99.	THE HISTORY AND DEVELOPMENT OF THE LAW OF TRUSTS IN CEYLON.	246
-----	---	-----

APPENDIX

TRUSTS ORDINANCE, 1917	249
------------------------	-----

INDEX