

CONTENTS

Introduction	1
Law and History	11
Law and Revolution	18
The Crisis of the Western Legal Tradition	33
Toward a Social Theory of Law	41
—	—
PART I: THE PAPAL REVOLUTION AND THE CANON LAW	47
1. The Background of the Western Legal Tradition: The Folklaw	49
Tribal Law	52
Dynamic Elements in Germanic Law: Christianity and Kingship	62
Penitential Law and Its Relation to the Folklaw	68
2. The Origin of the Western Legal Tradition in the Papal Revolution	85
Church and Empire: The Cluniac Reform	88
The Dictates of the Pope	94
The Revolutionary Character of the Papal Revolution	99
Social-Psychological Causes and Consequences of the Papal Revolution	107
The Rise of the Modern State	113
The Rise of Modern Legal Systems	115
3. The Origin of Western Legal Science in the European Universities	120
The Law School at Bologna	123
The Curriculum and Teaching Method	127
The Scholastic Method of Analysis and Synthesis	131
The Relation of Scholasticism to Greek Philosophy and Roman Law	132
The Application of the Scholastic Dialectic to Legal Science	143
Law as a Prototype of Western Science	151
4. Theological Sources of the Western Legal Tradition	165
Last Judgment and Purgatory	166
The Sacrament of Penance	172

The Sacrament of the Eucharist	173
The New Theology: St. Anselm's Doctrine of Atonement	174
The Legal Implications of the Doctrine of the Atonement	179
Theological Sources of Western Criminal Law	181
The Canon Law of Crimes	185
5. Canon Law: The First Modern Western Legal System	199
The Relation of Canon Law to Roman Law	204
Constitutional Foundations of the Canon Law System	205
Corporation Law as the Constitutional Law of the Church	215
Limitations on Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction	221
6. Structural Elements of the System of Canon Law	225
The Canon Law of Marriage	226
The Canon Law of Inheritance	230
The Canon Law of Property	237
The Canon Law of Contracts	245
Procedure	250
The Systematic Character of Canon Law	253
7. Becket versus Henry II: The Competition of Concurrent Jurisdictions	255
The Constitutions of Clarendon	256
Benefit of Clergy and Double Jeopardy	259
Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction in England	260
Writs of Prohibition	264
PART II: THE FORMATION OF SECULAR LEGAL SYSTEMS	271
8. The Concept of Secular Law	273
The Emergence of New Theories of Secular Government and Secular Law	275
John of Salisbury, Founder of Western Political Science	276
Theories of the Roman and Canon Lawyers	288
The Rule of Law	292

9. Feudal Law	295
Feudal Custom in the West Prior to the Eleventh Century	297
The Emergence of a System of Feudal Law	303
10. Manorial Law	316
Objectivity and Universality	321
Reciprocity of Rights of Lords and Peasants	322
Participatory Adjudication	324
Integration and Growth	328
11. Mercantile Law	333
Religion and the Rise of Capitalism	336
The New System of Commercial Law	339
12. Urban Law	356
Causes of the Rise of the Modern City	359
The Origins of the Cities and Towns of Western Europe	363
Picardy (France): Cambrai, Beauvais, Laon	364
France: Lorris, Montauban	368
Normandy: Verneuil	369
Flanders: Saint-Omer, Bruges, Ghent	370
Germany: Cologne, Freiburg, Lübeck, Magdeburg	371
England: London, Ipswich	380
The Italian Cities	386
Guilds and Guild Law	390
The Main Characteristics of Urban Law	392
The City as a Historical Community	399
13. Royal Law: Sicily, England, Normandy, France	404
The Norman Kingdom of Sicily	409
The Norman State	414
The Personality of Roger II	417
The Norman Legal System	419
The Growth of Royal Law in Norman Italy	424
England	434
The Personality of Henry II	438
The English State	440

English Royal Law ("The Common Law")	445
The Science of the English Common Law	457
Normandy	459
France	461
The Personality of Philip Augustus	463
The French State	464
The French System of Royal Justice	467
French Royal Civil and Criminal Law	473
French and English Royal Law Compared	477
14. Royal Law: Germany, Spain, Flanders, Hungary, Denmark	482
Germany	482
Imperial Law	482
The personality and vision of Frederick Barbarossa	488
The imperial peace statutes (Landfrieden)	493
The Mirror of Saxon Law (Sachsenspiegel)	503
The Law of the Principalities	505
Spain, Flanders, Hungary, Denmark	510
Royal Law and Canon Law	516
Conclusion	520
Beyond Marx, Beyond Weber	538
Abbreviations	560
Notes	561
Acknowledgements	636
Index	637

Maps and Figures

Map 1. Western Europe circa 1050	81
Map 2. Western Europe circa 1200	117
Map 3. Cities and towns of Western Europe circa 1250	365
Figure 1. Structure of the Western church-state, 1100-1500	210
Figure 2. Canon law, urban law, royal law, and feudal law, mid eleventh to late thirteenth centuries	522