

Table of Contents

	Page
I. Introduction	1
II. Workshop Presentations	3
1. An Unorthodox Method To Remedy Injustice— Professor G.L. Peiris	3
2. A Conservative Approach To Public Interest Litigation— Hon. K.N. Choksy	15
3. A Question Of Judicial Approach —Soli Sorabjee	21
4. Rights Must Be Backed By Remedies— Justice P. Ramanathan	27
5. When Justice Demanded Informal Practices— Justice Parinda Ranasinghe	30
6. Impact of English Law And Traditions— Justice Sarath Silva	33
7. An Opportunity For Justice Not To Be Missed— R.K.W. Goonesekere	38
8. An Extension of Fundamental Rights— D.W. Abayakoon	47
III. Gateway to Justice: Workshop proposals	49
A. Amendments to the Constitution	50
B. Judicial Interpretation	54
C. Challenging Legislation	58

D. Action by Lawyers	58
E. Judicial Attitudes	59
F. Information gathering and disseminating	59
G. Public Education	59
H. Praise and Commendations	60
Appendix 1: Sri Lankan Statutes relevant to PIL and Fundamental Rights (Articles 4d, 17, 118b, 125, and 126(2); New Supreme Court Rules 44(7) (April 1992)	62
Appendix 2: Relevance of Indian Law to Sri Lanka "Protection and Promotion of Fundamental Rights by Social Action and Public Interest Litigation in India" — Soli Sorabjee	64