

Contents

Introduction 12

Anna-Sara Lind & Jane Reichel

1. Processes of globalization and Europeanization in administrative law
2. The challenges for administrative law as a legal discipline
3. Presentation of the book and its content

The internationalization of administrative law 22

Lena Marcusson

1. An introduction
2. A Swedish time perspective
3. Changes – and continuity
4. European and international influences
5. Influences from Swedish law
6. Internationalization of administrative law – or global administrative law?
7. Final remarks
8. References
 - 8.1 Literature & reports, etc.
 - 8.2 Legislation & case law
 - 8.2.1. EU law
 - 8.2.2 Swedish law

PART I GOVERNANCE AND PROCEDURES

Why “multi-level” and “governance” are concepts of relevance for our understanding of Member State implementation of EU law 32

Helena Wockelberg

1. Introduction
2. Governance
3. Implementation of EU policy
 - 3.1 Implementation as transposition and compliance
 - 3.2 Implementation research and the need to move beyond transposition
4. Multi-level governance in the EU

- 4.1 Four modes of implementation in the EU
- 4.2 Member State level variables
- 5. Gap research, how to proceed
- 6. References
 - 6.1 Literature

A toolbox for administrative law cooperation beyond the state 47

Henrik Wenander

- 1. Introduction
- 2. The network perspective
 - 2.1 International organisations as a framework for administrative cooperation
 - 2.2 Examples of network cooperation structures
- 3. The conflict of laws perspective
 - 3.1 Coordination
 - 3.2 Recognition of foreign decisions
 - 3.3 Harmonisation
 - 3.4 Application of foreign administrative law
- 4. Conclusions
- 5. References
 - 5.1. Literature & reports, etc.
 - 5.2 Legislation, decisions & case law
 - 5.2.1 International law
 - 5.2.2 EU law
 - 5.2.3 Swedish law
 - 5.2.4 German law

Administrative law cooperation tools – the EGTC example 75

Vilhelm Persson

- 1. Introduction
- 2. Legal framework
- 3. Evaluation and proposals for amendments
- 4. Tools for administrative cooperation
- 5. Concluding remarks
- 6. References
 - 6.1 Literature & reports, etc.
 - 6.2 Legislation & decisions, etc.
 - 6.2.1 EU law
 - 6.2.2 Swedish law

BBMRI-ERIC – an analysis of a multi-level governance tool for the EU and beyond 85

Jane Reichel

- 1. Introduction
- 2. Basic principles of division of powers between the EU and the Member States and its importance for the development of a composite administration
 - 2.1 From direct or indirect to the shared administration of EU law
 - 2.2 Regulating administrative issues on substantive legal basis – or vice versa
- 3. From community method and judicial activism to governance in a composite European administration
 - 3.1 The Community Method
 - 3.2 The Meroni doctrine
 - 3.3 The principle of conferral and alternative forms of regulation
 - 3.4 Towards a composite but fragmented European administration?
- 4. Sources and administrative regimes applicable to global biobanking
 - 4.1 Fundamental rights in International law and European law
 - 4.2 International administrative regulation
 - 4.2.1 Secondary EU law
 - 4.2.2 Soft law
 - 4.3 The public benefit perspective
 - 4.4 Administrative organisation of ethics review
- 5. Applying the law to global biobanking
 - 5.1 Administrative conflicts of law
 - 5.1.1 Cross border consent to handle biological material
 - 5.1.2 Cross border consent to process personal data
 - 5.1.3 Cross border consent to participate in research
 - 5.2 The application of ethical and legal principles to global research biobanks – an inventory of problematic issues
- 6. BBMRI-ERIC – an effective governance tool for European and global biobanking?
 - 6.1 ERIC Consortia: functions and procedures
 - 6.1.1 Legal capacities and structures of the ERIC
 - 6.1.2 Preconditions for being established as an ERIC
 - 6.2 BBMRI-ERIC as a way forward?
- 7. References
 - 7.1 Literature & reports, etc.
 - 7.2 Legislation, decisions & case law
 - 7.2.1 International law
 - 7.2.2 EU law

- 7.2.3 Swedish law
- 7.3 Websites

PART II ADMINISTRATIVE LAW WITHIN AND BEYOND EUROPE

New challenges for administrative law theory 120

Niels Fenger

- 1. The topic of this contribution
- 2. The internationalization of administrative law
 - 2.1. EU law
 - 2.1.1. EU law and the concept of general administrative law
 - 2.1.2. The Lisbon Treaty
 - 2.1.2.1. Overview
 - 2.1.2.2. The principle of equality in Articles 20 and 21 of the Charter
 - 2.2. The European Convention on Human Rights
 - 2.2.1. Methods of interpretation
 - 2.2.2. Judicial review
 - 2.2.3. Legitimate expectations
 - 2.2.3.1. Administrative acts conferring a benefit on their addressee
 - 2.2.3.2. Time-limited permits
 - 2.2.4. Administrative procedure
- 3. Data protection rules and the changed working methods of administration
 - 3.1. Introduction
 - 3.2. Data cooperation
 - 3.3. Automated case management
 - 3.4. Classical issues of administrative law that take a different form in relation to computer-based case management
 - 3.5. The approach hitherto and the need for a new approach
- 4. Concluding remarks
- 5. References
 - 5.1 Literature & reports, etc.
 - 5.2 Case Law
 - 5.2.1 Court of Justice of the European Union
 - 5.2.2 European Court of Human Rights
 - 5.2.3 Danish case law

Administrative Data Protection in Global Networks 143

Cecilia Magnusson Sjöberg

- 1. Introduction to the Topic
- 2. The scope of administrative data
- 3. The framework of administration
- 4. The perspective of global digital networks
- 5. Means for protection
 - 5.1 A set of critical factors
 - 5.2 Illustration
- 6. Current developments
 - 6.1 A sample of digital environments cross-border
 - 6.2 Major legal areas of concern
- 7. Towards better legal information management
- 8. References
 - 8.1 Literature & reports, etc.
 - 8.2 Legislation & decisions, etc.
 - 8.2.1 EU law
 - 8.2.2 Swedish law

Designing institutions for multilevel copyright governance in the EU and beyond 162

Antonina Bakardjieva Engelbrekt

- 1. Introduction
- 2. The multi-level legislative process in digital copyright: a reverse pyramid
 - 2.1 The WIPO Internet Treaties
 - 2.2 The Europeanisation of Digital Copyright
- 3. Institutional choice in a multilevel system of copyright governance: the case of access providers' responsibility for copyright enforcement
- 4. National legislators: between a rock and a hard place
 - 4.1 The French preference for an administrative approach
 - 4.2 The UK preference for co-regulation
 - 4.3 The Swedish reliance on the judicial process
- 5. The advent of regulatory copyright?
- 6. European copyright policy in-between levels
- 7. References
 - 7.1 Literature & reports, etc.
 - 7.2 Legislation, decisions & case law
 - 7.2.1 International law

- 7.2.2 EU law
- 7.2.3 Swedish law
- 7.2.4 French law
- 7.2.5 English law

Globalization and the question of official languages 193

Lotta Lerwall

- 1. Introduction
- 2. From national languages to globalization ... – and back again?
 - 2.1 World common languages
 - 2.2 An increased interest for language issues
- 3. Corpus and status
- 4. Constitution or ordinary law?
- 5. Possible reasons for legislating on a language's status
- 6. The need to protect the Swedish language
 - 6.1 The position of the Swedish language is under threat
 - 6.2 The threat of internalization in general and "EU-fication" in particular
 - 6.3 Possible consequences
- 7. The purposes of the Swedish Language Act
- 8. What does the obligation to "protect" Swedish entail?
- 9. The enforcement of the obligations
- 10. What are the effects of the legislation on the protection of the language?
- 11. References
 - 11.1 Literature & reports, etc.
 - 11.2 Legislation & decisions
 - 11.2.1 International law
 - 11.2.2 Swedish law
 - 11.2.3 Other
 - 11.3 Websites

PART III THEORETICAL APPROACHES

Realizing fundamental rights in practice – a quest for an emerging European administration 218

Anna-Sara Lind

- 1. Introduction
- 2. Individual rights, public interests and the courts – new or old pluralism?

3. Understanding rights through an administrative lens – beyond a pluralistic rights protection?
4. Towards a more diversified interpretation of rights?
5. Closing remarks
6. References
 - 6.1 Literature & reports, etc.
 - 6.2 Legislation, decisions & case law
 - 6.2.1 International law
 - 6.2.2. EU law
 - 6.3 Websites

Global governance; need for a new theory or the return of an old friend? 230

Thomas Bull

1. Introduction
2. The rise of the machine
3. The shift
4. Exporting administrative law – values at home and abroad
5. The missing link
6. Conclusion
7. References
 - 7.1 Literature & reports, etc.
 - 7.2 Case law

Economic efficiency and legality as criteria for the development of good administration in a globalized order 240

Naomi Reniutz-Ursoiu

1. Summary
2. Introduction
3. The quest of public administration's legitimacy
 - 3.1 The "old" rule of law as the ethos of bureaucracy
 - 3.2 The new criteria: "economic efficiency" as the prevailing paradigm of the structural adjustment reforms
 - 3.3 The dark side of the administrative machine
4. The "good" desiderata as forms of the legitimacy of administrative governance
 - 4.1 Good governance – a conceptual dissonance?
 - 4.2 The European legal conceptualization of good administrative governance
 - 4.3 Good administration between legality and efficiency criteria

5. Conclusion

6. References

6.1 Literature & reports, etc.

6.2 Legislation & case law

6.2.1 EU law

Evolutionary theory and legal positivism: a possible marriage benefiting transnational law 266

Mauro Zamboni

1. Introduction

2. The prenup – some clarifications

3. The Bachelor – what is an evolutionary theory of law-making?

4. Why marry? – the missing piece in the evolutionary theory of law-making

5. Possible brides – “Creationist” vs. “Darwinist” legal theory

6. The wedding – legal positivism and the evolutionary theory of law-making

7. Life after marriage – some possible contributions to transnational corporate law-making from the “reformed” legal evolutionary theory

8. The end – conclusion

9. References

9.1 Literature

9.2 Case law

Contributors (in alphabetical order) 360