

CONTENTS

FOREWORD	vii
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	ix
EXECUTIVE SUMMARY	x
INTRODUCTION	xx
I. METHODOLOGY, SCOPE AND LIMITATIONS	xxvii
A. Research process and methodology	xxvii
B. Oversight and guidance	xxviii
C. Approach.....	xxviii
D. Scope and limitations.....	xxix
II. HOW TO USE THE GUIDE	xxix
A. Structure of the guide	xxix
B. Structure of the sections.....	xxx

PART ONE: STATE OBLIGATIONS TO ENACT COMPREHENSIVE ANTI-DISCRIMINATION LAW..... xxxii

I. CONSENSUS ON THE NEED TO ADOPT COMPREHENSIVE ANTI-DISCRIMINATION LAW	1
A. The international human rights law framework.....	1
B. Obligations to respect, protect and fulfil.....	2
C. United Nations human rights instruments and their interpretation	4
II. CHARTER BODIES AND OTHER INTERNATIONAL PROCESSES	6
A. United Nations special procedure mandate holders.....	6
B. Universal periodic review.....	6
C. Other international processes.....	7
III. REGIONAL AND NATIONAL LAW DEVELOPMENTS	8
A. Africa	8
B. The Americas.....	10
C. Europe.....	11
D. Other national law developments.....	13
IV. CONCLUSION	15

PART TWO: CONTENT OF COMPREHENSIVE ANTI-DISCRIMINATION LAW ... 16

I. RIGHTS TO EQUALITY AND NON-DISCRIMINATION	17
A. Prohibition of discrimination	17
1. Personal scope of the right to non-discrimination.....	19
2. Forms of discrimination.....	29
3. Material scope of the right to non-discrimination.....	47
4. Justifications.....	51

B. Positive action	56
1. Obligation to adopt positive action measures.....	58
2. Purpose and scope of positive action measures.....	59
3. Principles for the operation of positive action	62
4. Positive action under comprehensive anti-discrimination law.....	65
C. Equality duties	66
1. Accessibility	66
2. Statutory equality duties	69
3. Ensuring the effectiveness of equality duties	73
II. REMEDY	75
A. Remedies in different branches of law.....	77
B. Sanction: bringing perpetrators to justice.....	78
C. Reparation: recognition, compensation and restitution	80
D. Institutional and societal remedies.....	81
1. Institutional remedies	82
2. Societal remedies	83
III. JUSTICE AND ENFORCEMENT	87
A. Access to justice and legal procedure	88
1. Requirements of access to justice.....	88
B. Evidence and proof.....	93
1. Burden of proof.....	94
2. Exceptions to the rule	95
3. Evidence.....	96
C. International justice mechanisms	97
1. Individual complaints mechanisms	97
2. Complainants, respondents and procedure.....	98
IV. EQUALITY BODIES	101
A. Equality bodies and international law	102
B. Institutional requirements for equality bodies	103
1. Independence	103
2. Adequate resourcing	104
3. Inclusion, participation and ensuring diversity	105
4. Access to equality bodies	106
C. Mandates, functions and powers of equality bodies	107
1. Promotion and prevention	109
2. Support and litigation.....	111
3. Decision-making and enforcement.....	111
D. Ensuring the effectiveness of equality bodies	113
V. IMPLEMENTATION OBLIGATIONS	115
A. Equality policies and strategies.....	116
B. Equality impact assessment.....	117
C. Monitoring and data	119
D. Consultation, engagement and participation.....	120

PART THREE: PROTECTING MINORITY RIGHTS	122
I. MINORITY RIGHTS AND THE BAN ON DISCRIMINATION	123
A. Minority rights under international law.....	126
B. Who are minorities?	127
II. GROUPS EXPOSED TO RACIAL DISCRIMINATION AND ASSOCIATED HARMS	130
A. Racial discrimination: jus cogens , particularly invidious harm, and the problem of denial	134
B. Community, autonomy, equality and non-discrimination and harmful practices	135
III. RELIGIOUS OR BELIEF MINORITIES AND DISCRIMINATION	139
A. Equality and non-discrimination in the exercise of freedom of religion or belief	139
1. State religion and religious and belief minorities	140
2. Equal recognition of minority religious or belief communities and their members.....	141
B. Discrimination on the basis of religion or belief in other areas of life	143
1. Religious clothing, symbols and the public sphere	144
2. Religious or belief communities as duty bearers	146
3. Reasonable accommodation and religious practice.....	147
4. Opting out in the field of health	148
C. Discrimination on the basis of other characteristics in situations in which religion is a pretext	149
1. Conscientious objection and its limits.....	149
2. Family and personal status law: marriage, divorce, inheritance and burial	151
3. Harmful practices.....	152
IV. LANGUAGE, LINGUISTIC MINORITIES, DISCRIMINATION, EQUALITY AND INCLUSION	153
V. GENUINE AND EFFECTIVE MINORITY PARTICIPATION AND THE BAN ON DISCRIMINATION	159
VI. RIGHTS OF INDIGENOUS PEOPLES	161
PART FOUR: DISCRIMINATORY VIOLENCE AND HATE CRIME	166
PART FIVE: DISCRIMINATION AND EXPRESSION	172
I. ASPECTS OF SPEECH AND EXPRESSION DIRECTLY IMPLICATING ANTI-DISCRIMINATION LAW	174
II. HATE SPEECH AND THE BAN ON INCITEMENT TO DISCRIMINATION, HOSTILITY OR VIOLENCE	175
A. Advocacy of national, racial or religious hatred as well as in relation to disability, gender expression and gender identity, sex, sexual orientation, sex characteristics or other grounds	179
1. Assessing context.....	181
2. Distinguishing the speaker	182
B. Disseminating ideas based on racial superiority or hatred.....	183
C. Incitement to commit genocide	184
D. Incitement to commit terrorist acts	184
E. Defamation.....	184
III. SANCTIONS FOR INCITEMENT AND OTHER FORMS OF HATE- OR BIAS-BASED EXPRESSION ...	185
IV. NON-LEGAL MEASURES	186

PART SIX: PROMOTING DIVERSITY AND EQUALITY: OBLIGATIONS TO ADDRESS THE ROOT CAUSES OF DISCRIMINATION	190
I. INTERNATIONAL LAW OBLIGATIONS TO ADDRESS PREJUDICE, STEREOTYPES AND STIGMA	192
II. SPECIFIC MEASURES	196
A. Participation and representation in public life.....	196
B. Diversity and equal representation	198
C. Education	198
D. Media and awareness-raising	199
E. Training and sensitization	199
F. Enforcement and implementation.....	200
III. CONCLUSION: PROMOTING EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY	201