

Contents

Foreword: A consultation on prosecution in Asia .....	v
Introduction: Obstacles to the protection of human rights through administration of justice .....	1
Resolutions
1. Support of the lawyers' movement in Pakistan .....	9
2. On the case of two Supreme Court advocates in Burma .....	10
3. Concern for witnesses, journalists and lawyers in Sri Lanka .....	12
4. On the rule of law and human rights in Bangladesh .....	14
5. On human rights in Indonesia .....	15
6. On human rights in Thailand .....	16
7. Concern over the systemic failure of the prosecution in India .....	17
8. On prosecution in South Korea .....	18
Signatories to resolutions .....	19
Notes from discussions
A few questions .....	21
Some issues that emerged .....	21
Some issues that repeatedly arose .....	25
Some priorities for each country .....	26
Articles
Investigation and prosecution: Implementation of international law in Asia .....	31
The prosecution system and administration of justice in Bangladesh .....	37
The Cambodian prosecutorial system .....	54
Public prosecution in India .....	57
The prosecutor and prosecution system in Indonesia .....	64
The prosecutorial system and problems in Korea .....	71
Pakistan's prosecution service: A new dimension .....	76
Lack of independence and political interference undermining prosecution system in the Philippines .....	86
Participants .....	88
Appendix: Statement of Prosecution Policy and Practice—Hong Kong .....	89
Appendix I: United Nations guidelines on the role of prosecutors .....	120
Appendix II: The International Association of Prosecutors: Standards of professional responsibility and statement of the essential duties and rights of prosecutors .....	125