

Table of Contents

Introduction	vii
1. A Line in the Sand: International (Dis)Order and the Impunity of Non-State Corporate Actors in the Developing World S. Agbakwa	1
2. Human Capabilities and Gender Justice: A South Asian Perspective B. Baruah	19
3. Operation Enduring Freedom: Towards a New International Law and Order? U. Baxi	31
4. Third World Approaches to International Law: A Manifesto B.S. Chimni	47
5. Geographical Hegelianism in Territorial Disputes Involving Non-European Land Relations: An Analysis of the Case Concerning Kasikili/Sedudu Island (Botswana/Namibia) J.T. Gathii	75
6. Opinion: Illegal Wars and International Criminal Law M. Mandel	117
7. The Ground Beneath Her Feet: TWAIL Feminisms V. Nesiiah	133
8. International Law and Third World Resistance: A Theoretical Inquiry B. Rajagopal	145
9. Economic Neo-Liberalism and the International Law on Foreign Investment M. Sornarajah	173
Notes on Contributors	191