

CONTENTS

Introduction	xi
---------------------------	----

PART I

General Issues

“On the Relationships Between Ius In Bello and Ius Ad Bellum . Can a Notion of International Humanitarian Law to Influence in the Determination of the Legality of the Use of the Force?”	3
José Antonio Pastor-Ridruejo
“Terrorist Acts, Armed Conflicts and International Humanitarian Law”	13
José Luis Rodríguez-Villasante
“Ways Out of the World Disorder?”	47
Peter Leuprecht
“From Kosovo to Iraq, A New Right of Pro-Human Rights Intervention?”	61
Claribel de Castro-Sánchez
“New Weaponry Technologies and International Humanitarian Law: Their Consequences on the Human Being and the Environment”	91
Rosario Domínguez-Matés

PART II

Particular Issues

“The Legal Situation of Foreigners in Armed Conflicts”	123
Pablo Antonio Fernández-Sánchez
“The Protection of Journalists in Armed Conflicts”	145
Claudio Zanghi

“Sexual Violence as War Crimes”	163
Elisabeth Odio-Benito
“From Bagdad to Guantanamo. Legal Statue and Treatment Given to the Detainees in the “War Against Terrorism”	175
Ruth Abril-Stoffels
“Combatants and Armed Elements as Refugees. The Interplay Between International Humanitarian Law and International Refugee Law”	207
Nuria Arenas-Hidalgo
“The Refugees: From the International Humanitarian Law to the European Constitution. Good Intentions But Less Than It Looks”	227
José Manuel Peláez-Marón

PART III

Judicial Issues

“The New Challenges and the Role of the International Court of Justice”	243
Rosalyn Higgins
“The Role of International Criminal Tribunals in the Implementation of Humanitarian Law and the Maintenance of Peace”	265
Theodor Meron
“The Principle of Universal Jurisdiction and the Punishable Crimes under Articles 609–614 of the 1995 Spanish Penal Code”	269
José B. Acosta-Estévez ✓
“The Obstacles to the International Criminal Court: Impediments to the Enforcement of International Humanitarian Law”	295
Carmen Quesada-Alcalá
“The Victims of Human Rights Violations in Armed Conflicts: The Right to Justice, to Truth and Compensation”	315
Ana Salado-Osuna

Laudatio to Professor Carrillo-Salcedo

His Excellency Mr. Jorge Sampaio	345
H.E. Mr. Juan Antonio Yáñez Barnuevo and H.E. Prof. Dr. Julio D. González-Campos	353
H.E. Mr. Federico Mayor-Zaragoza	355
H.E. Mr. Marcelino Oreja-Aguirre	359
Index	363