

Contents

Introduction: Contrasts between a developed legal system and the Sri Lankan legal system	v
---	---

COMMENTARY

How the supremacy of law was lost	1
A point-by-point review of state inaction on the recommendations of UN agencies:
Recommendations of the Working Group on the Universal Periodic Review	27
Recommendations of the Special Rapporteur on torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment	40
Recommendations of the Working Group on Enforced or Involuntary Disappearances	49
Recommendations of the Human Rights Committee on communications under ICCPR	52
Five overlapping conflicts and their implications for the Sri Lankan legal system	57
A study about the processes and strategies of prevention of torture in Sri Lanka	75
A 'praxis' perspective on subverted justice and the breakdown of rule of law in Sri Lanka	101
Police reform initiatives within a dysfunctional system	137
Promoting international norms and standards in the context of dysfunctional justice systems	153

CASES

Three recent case studies	213
1. A judgment not based on evidence: Lalith Rajapakse case	215
2. Attacks on a human rights defender: J. C. Weliamuna	245
3. Death threats against lawyers: The Mabason Balakaya	267
Two hundred cases of torture and abuse in Sri Lanka	281

APPENDIX

Memorandum on the compatibility of the practice of bringing fabricated charges with international human rights standards, national jurisprudence and international standards on policing	543
--	-----