

Contents

Foreword

PART ONE: ON THE EXISTENCE OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

Introduction: THE ORIGINS OF THE THEORY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW .....	3
Hugo Grotius .....	4
Chapter one: IS INTERNATIONAL LAW REALLY LAW? .....	8
A sterile verbal dispute? .....	9
1 Those who deny – the deniers .....	11
(i) Thomas Hobbes .....	12
(ii) John Austin .....	14
(iii) Adolf Lasson .....	17
(iv) Anders Vilhelm Lundstedt .....	20
2 Those who apparently deny – the quasi-deniers .....	22
(i) Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel .....	23
(ii) Myres S McDougal .....	26
3 The conformists .....	30
The empirical test of acceptance .....	30
Chapter two: THE IMPORTANCE OF INTERNATIONAL GOVERNMENT AND INTERNATIONAL SANCTION .....	32
1 Government .....	32
(i) Is government essential? .....	32
(ii) Is government desirable? .....	33

Sir Hersch Lauterpacht .....	34
HLA Hart .....	35
Richard A Falk .....	37
Grigory I Tunkin .....	38
Proposals for international government .....	38
2 Sanction .....	39
(i) Is sanction essential? .....	39
Hans Kelsen .....	39
Michael Barkun .....	42
(ii) Is sanction desirable? .....	43

PART TWO: AFRICA IN THE INTERNATIONAL LEGAL ORDER – THE EMERGENCE OF A REGION

Introduction .....	48
Chapter one: THE PRE-COLONIAL AFRICA .....	49
1 Traditional political structures .....	49
2 Some well-known indigenous kingdoms .....	52
3 Early international contacts .....	55
(i) Inter-Black-African contacts .....	55
(ii) Contact with the outside world .....	56
(a) Contact with the Arab world .....	56
(b) Contact with Europe .....	57
4 The European scramble for Africa .....	60
5 The status of pre-colonial Africa under the European         law of nations .....	61
Chapter two: THE COLONIAL EPISODE .....	65
1 The colonization of Africa .....	65
2 The status of colonial Africa under international law ....	70
3 A new international principle emerges:         self-determination .....	72
4 The decolonization of Africa .....	82
Chapter three: THE AFRICA OF TODAY .....	92
1 Towards national unity .....	92
African socialism .....	93

2	Towards African unity .....	96
	Pan-Africanism .....	96
	Pan-Continentalism .....	100
	The Brazzaville group .....	104
	The Casablanca group .....	106
	The Monrovia group .....	108
	The Lagos charter .....	109
	The Organization of African Unity .....	111
3	The new Africa in the international legal order .....	120
	(i) The African region .....	121
	(ii) The African approach to international law .....	121
	(a) The legal sovereignty and equality of states ..	122
	Condemnation of subversion .....	122
	Non-alignment .....	123
	The principle of continental jurisdiction ...	124
	African representation in world bodies ....	124
	Socialization of international law .....	125
	(b) Peaceful settlement of disputes .....	128
	(c) The eradication of colonialism (including
	White minority rule) .....	133
	(iii) African regional law .....	134
4	The OAU and the UN .....	135
	(i) The maintenance of international peace and security .....	136
	(ii) Technical co-operation .....	150

PART THREE: ON THE IDENTIFICATION OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

	Introduction .....	157
	Chapter one: STATE-VOLUNTARISM OR
	UNIVERSALISM? .....	159
1	State-voluntarism .....	159
	(i) Georg Jellinek .....	160
	(ii) Heinrich Triepel .....	160
	(iii) Grigory I Tunkin .....	161
2	Universalism .....	164
	(i) Hans Kelsen .....	166

(ii) Twentieth century revival of natural law .....	168
Louis Le Fur .....	169
Alfred Verdross .....	169
Sir Hersch Lauterpacht .....	169
(iii) Hugo Krabbe .....	171
(iv) The solidarists .....	172
Léon Duguit .....	172
Georges Scelle .....	172
(v) The realists .....	173
The empirical test of acceptance .....	173
3 The wider significance of the debate .....	174
Chapter two: THE "SOURCES" OF INTERNATIONAL LAW .....	175
1 The universalist view .....	175
Treaty law .....	176
Customary international law .....	178
General principles of law .....	181
2 The state-voluntarist view .....	184
Treaty law .....	185
Customary international law .....	185
General principles of law .....	186
Chapter three: THE SUBJECTS OF INTERNATIONAL LAW .....	188
1 The state-voluntarist view .....	188
2 The universalist view .....	188
3 Recognition theories .....	189
4 Modern international practice .....	192
(i) States .....	192
(ii) Other subjects of international law .....	197
(a) International organizations .....	197
(b) Subordinate territories .....	204
Protectorates .....	204
Associated "states" .....	205
Constitutional subdivisions of states .....	206
Colonial territories .....	206
(c) Belligerents (including national liberation movements) .....	207

(d) The individual .....	209
(e) The Holy See, and the Order of Malta .....	213
Chapter four: INTERNATIONAL LAW AND NATIONAL                   LAW – DUALISM OR MONISM? .....	215
1 The state-voluntarist view: dualism .....	215
2 The universalist view: monism .....	215
3 Modern practice .....	216
(i) The position at the international level .....	216
(ii) The position at the national level .....	220
(a) English practice .....	221
(b) French practice .....	227
 Selected bibliography .....	 233
List of abbreviations .....	241
Table of cases .....	243
Index .....	247