

CONTENTS

I	PREFACE	xi
II	LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS	xiii
III	TABLES OF STATEMENTS AND STATISTICS	xviii
IV	TABLE OF CASES	xix
V	TABLE OF STATUTES	xxvi
VI	CHAPTERS 1 - 17	1-336
	Chapter 1.	1
	INTRODUCTION
1.1	Through a thorny path	1
1.2	An over view of the scenario	4
1.3	A new window is open	6
1.4	Justification and benefits	8
1.5	Achievements expected	9
1.6	Coverage and limitations	10
	Chapter 2.	12
	HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENT OF COMMERCE, SAVINGS AND BANKING ENVIRONMENT IN A NUT SHELL
2.1	Introduction	12
2.2	Brief history of commercial activities - World	12
2.3	Short history of commercial activities - Sri Lanka	15
	Chapter 3.	22
	CONCISE HISTORY OF FINANCE COMPANIES IN SRI LANKA AND THE FAILURES IN THE RECENT PAST
3.1	Introduction	22
3.2	Brief history of finance companies	22
3.3	Bank and finance company failures since 1988 to 2019 and efforts of depositors	23
3.4	Unauthorised finance business	32
3.5	Regulatory action by CBSL	34
3.6	Fundamental rights petitions by the depositors	36
3.7	Out of court efforts of depositors' and Creditors'	37
	Chapter 4.	39
	FINANCE BUSINESS, REGULATOR AND STRENGTH OF DEPOSITOR
4.1	Introduction	39
4.2	Main functions of financial institutions and restrictions	39
4.3	Economic and legal back ground of finance business	41
4.4	Regulator	48
4.5	Strength of depositor	52

4.6	Tables A-1, A-2 and A-3	59
Chapter 5.		63
CRIMES AND CRIMINAL LIABILITY
5.1	Introduction	63
5.2	Crimes	63
5.3	Historical development of laws on crimes from early periods	64
5.4	Determination of criminal liability and punishments during middle ages	65
5.5	Definition of crime	66
5.6	Main types of crimes and blue collar crimes	68
5.7	Proof of a crime	68
5.8	Modern day criminal liability	70
5.9	Penal code of Sri Lanka	71
5.10	Penal code, statutory offences and general exceptions or excuses	72
5.11	Strict criminal liability offences in SL	72
5.12	Vicarious liability and absence of Mens Rea	73
5.13	Corporate criminal liability	74
5.14	Criminal liability of corporate directors on corporate crimes	78
Chapter 6.		79
WHITE COLLAR CRIMES
6.1	Introduction	79
6.2	Recognition of white collar crimes	80
6.3	Glimpse of the history of white collar crimes	82
6.4	Definitions of white collar crimes	84
6.5	Basic types of white collar crimes	87
6.6	Characteristics of white collar crimes	88
6.7	Sub classes of white collar crimes	89
6.8	White collar criminal	92
6.9	Theories on criminology relating to white collar crimes	93
6.10	White collar crimes in corporates	98
6.11	Corporate crime or organizational crime	100
6.12	Occupational crimes	103
6.13	Why white collar crimes cannot be eradicated	109
6.14	Women in white collar crime	110
6.15	Tables B -1 and B - 2	119
Chapter 7.		123
EXPERT'S VIEWS AND CRIMINOLOGICAL EXPLANATIONS ON A MAJOR WHITE COLLAR CRIME INCIDENT IN USA
7.1	Introduction	123
7.2	Savings and loans crisis	123
7.3	Expert's view on the significance of fraud	126
7.4	Outcomes relevant out of the debacle to finance companies of Sri Lanka	129

7.5	Theoretical and general reasons for fewer prosecutions in white collar crimes	130
Chapter 8.		133
SELECTED WHITE COLLAR CRIME INCIDENCES AND ECONOMIC IMPACT OF WHITE COLLAR CRIMES
8.1	Introduction	133
8.2	Occupational crimes - State sector- Abuse of trust and authority	134
8.3	Occupational crimes – Private sector - Abuse of trust	136
8.4	Occupational crimes – Professionals	138
8.5	Corporate crimes	138
8.6	Personal crimes	140
8.7	Incidents of few white collar crimes by women	141
8.8	Women involvement in offences relating to corporate crimes -finance companies	144
8.9	Incidents of few white collar crimes reported in foreign press	145
8.10	Impact of white collar crimes to economy	148
8.11	Tables C -1, C – 2, D -1 and D-2	152
Chapter 9.		157
FEW INCIDENCES OF WHITE COLLAR CRIMES IN FINANCE COMPANIES AND CRIMINOLOGICAL RELEVANCE
9.1	Introduction	157
9.2	Incidents of white collar crimes of four failed finance companies	157
9.3	Probable criminological explanations for the incidents of white collar crimes	162
9.4	Corporate criminality in few other finance companies	167
9.5	Data on few failed finance companies, loss to economy and fewer number of criminals involved – Sri Lanka and USA	168
9.6	Tables E-1 and E- 2 , Appendix I and II	171
Chapter 10.		177
REMEDIES FOR DEPOSITORS UNDER PRIVATE LAW
10.1	Introduction	177
10.2	Law of contract	177
10.3	Contract of deposit and related matters	178
10.4	Breach of contract of deposits	181
10.5	Remedies for breach of contract – Possibilities and impossibilities	182
10.6	Company law	186
10.7	Legal personality	187
10.8	Remedies under company law for breach of contracts	188
10.9	Private law and human rights	196

Chapter 11.	197
REMEDIES FOR DEPOSITORS UNDER PUBLIC LAW, OFFENCES UNDER FINANCE BUSINESS ACT AND FEW REMEDIES ADOPTED IN OTHER JURISDICTIONS
11.1 Introduction	197
11.2 Action against directors / employees	198
11.3 Cheques issued without funds	201
11.4 Application of employees Mens Rea to white collar crimes of finance companies and others	203
11.5 Offences under FBA – Overview	203
11.6 Finance company fails to pay interest and deposit	205
11.7 Comparison - FBA Section 20 and similar Indian Acts	213
11.8 Action for wrongful gain and wrongful loss –Statutory veil lifting	215
11.9 Identification doctrine or Mens Rea of key management personnel	217
11.10 Offences by persons - Corporate and individual liability	218
11.11 Faults of finance companies on regulatory affairs and criminal prosecutions under self mens rea	221
11.12 Offences of shareholders, directors, employees and others devoid of corporate status- Absence of reverse burden of proof	222
11.13 Criminal punishments and penalties	223
11.14 Few instances of other regulatory roles of CBSL under FCA and FBA	223
11.15 Countermeasures against the directions of CBSL	225
11.16 Remedies adopted in other jurisdictions on criminal offences by companies	225
Chapter 12.	228
HUMAN RIGHTS
12.1 Introduction	228
12.2 Human dignity and human rights	228
12.3 Human rights through religious teachings and ancient practices	230
12.4 Short history of modern human rights and humanitarian law	237
12.5 An outline of modern theories on human rights	242
12.6 Human rights theories vis a vis social contract theory	246
12.7 Modern thinking, definitions, characteristics and progressive development of human rights	247
12.8 National, regional and international human rights and humanitarian law	249
12.9 UDHR, regional conventions and constitutions on human duties	252

12.10	Economic development and human rights	253
Chapter 13.		254
	VERTICAL APPLICATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS / FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS IN SRI LANKA
13.1	Introduction	254
13.2	Fundamental rights in a constitution and vertical application	254
13.3	Does every injustice is a violation of fundamental rights ?	255
13.4	Articles on fundamental rights in CDSRSL of 1978	256
13.5	Is it only State responsibility ?	256
13.6	Fundamental rights are for whom ?	256
13.7	Individual and collective fundamental rights - restrictions	257
13.8	Basic requirements -Application of fundamental rights	258
13.9	Guidance from Supreme Court decisions	259
13.10	Awarding and termination of commercial contracts of State and contracts of employment under State	268
13.11	Fundamental rights of depositors and directors' of GKCCCL	269
13.12	Fundamental rights and fundamental duties	269
Chapter 14.		270
	PRIVATISATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS
14.1	Introduction	270
14.2	Horizontal application of human rights	270
14.3	Scholars' views on the horizontal application	271
14.4	Comparisons, similarities, disagreements on scholars' views and common models	283
14.5	Horizontal applications under constitutions and conventions	285
14.6	Horizontal applications under CDSRSL	292
Chapter 15		296
	HORIZONTAL APPLICATIONS FOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS OF INDIVIDUALS AND CORPORATES IN INDIA AND SRI LANKA
15.1	Introduction	296
15.2	Difficulties in identifying horizontal applications in court decisions for violations of human rights- Constitutional Constraints	297
15.3	Horizontal application under special legislation - State responsibility- Damages borne by violators	297
15.4	Direct horizontal application – Violations without State responsibility - Damages borne by private violators - India	299
15.5	Indirect horizontal applications – State Liability within vertical application – Constitutional Obligations -SL	300
15.6	Justification for indirect horizontal application – SL	305

Chapter 16	308
JUSTICE FOR DEPOSITORS OF FAILED FINANCE COMPANIES THROUGH HUMAN RIGHTS AND A WINDOW FOR HORIZONTAL APPLICATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS ON CORRUPTION AND FRAUDS
16.1 Introduction	308
16.2 Vertical application – Breach of commercial contracts of deposits on account of white collar crimes – Settlement through State funds	309
16.3 Vertical application – Breach of commercial contracts of deposit on account of white collar crimes – Settlement through violators funds	315
16.4 Indirect horizontal application – A new path within vertical Application	316
16.5 Failure of the regulator on social contract theory and misuse of public property	318
16.6 A window for horizontal application – Corruption in public and private sector – Violation of fundamental rights	321
16.7 Protection from corruption as a human right	324
16.8 Final solution	325
Chapter 17	327
FUTURE EXPECTATIONS
17.1 Introduction	327
17.2 Conclusions	327
17.3 Thoughts for authorities	331
APPENDICES	336
BIBLIOGRAPHY	337
REFERENCES– I	341
(Conference papers, Journals, World Wide Web - Books, Journals and Research articles)
REFERENCES– II	344
(Journals, Information and facts from United Nations Organisations, other world bodies and miscellaneous sources)
REFERENCES– III	346
(Constitutions, Human rights instruments, Courts and Commissions on human rights)
REFERENCES– IV	348
(Commissions and Committee Reports, Annual and Audit reports, Prospectuses and Audio presentations)
REFERENCES–V	349
(Newspaper articles, World Wide Web news, CBSL notices)
ADDENDA	361
INDEX	365