

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PART I : REFLECTIONS ON THE IMPEACHMENT DEBATE	12
Three constitutions and the independence of the judiciary	12
Differentiate between the legal and the other dimensions	13
The missing dimensions in the debate on the impeachment	13
The background to dismissal of judges of superior courts and inferior courts	17
Article 107 and Standing Order 78A	28
Judicial review, judicial power and natural justice,	34
Judicial intervention	36
Address by Parliament to President	38
Judicial decisions and power of court to investigate parliamentary procedure	39
Court of Appeal error in issuing writ against PSC	45
The cause of a chaotic Situation	52
The President and Parliament	53
The Parliamentary Select Committee	54
The conduct of Opposition Members of the PSC	56
The alleged wrongs are not crimes or minor offences	57
A former Speaker and UNP Mayor speaks sense	58

Issues outside the legal and constitutional	59
PART II : REFLECTIONS ON THE IMPEACHMENT DEBATE	61
My beliefs and political position	62
Human values more important than human rights	69
Political realities	76
Conclusions and the debate on the impeachment	78
APPENDIX: About Mark Cooray	81
Comments on the Reception in Ceylon of the Trust	89
A review of an article in Modern Ceylon Studies, Vol. 1	91
Comments on Conventions, the Australian Constitution	92
Comments on a letter " Abandoned our Moral Duties "	97
References	99