

Contents

List of Boxes	xviii
Preface	xxi

section 1

Defining and Measuring Delinquency

chapter 1	Defining Juvenile Delinquency	5
	The Status of Being a Child	7
	Early Prohibitions of Juvenile Behavior	10
	The Code of Hammurabi 10 ■ The Greek Empire 10 ■ The Middle Ages 12 ■ The Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries 13 ■ The Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries 13
	American Delinquency	16
	The American Colonies 16 ■ Postcolonial Patterns of Delinquency 17 ■ Early Problems with the Juvenile Court and Probation 25
	Changing Perceptions of Delinquency	30
	What Is Juvenile Delinquency? Who Is a Juvenile Delinquent?	32
	Conclusions 33 ■ Self-Test 34 ■ Discussion Questions 36 ■ Endnotes 36
chapter 2	Measuring Delinquency	41
	Measures of Delinquency	42
	Uniform Crime Reports 42 ■ Juvenile Court Statistics 46 ■ Victimization Surveys 47 ■ Self-Report Delinquency Studies 50
	Extent and Nature of Delinquency	52
	How Serious Is the Crime Problem? 54 ■ How Serious Is Juvenile Delinquency? 54 ■ Gender and Delinquency 55 ■ Race and Delinquency 58 ■ Social Class and Delinquency 59 ■ Age and Delinquency 62
	Chronic Offenders	63
	Delinquency in Philadelphia 63 ■ Delinquency in Racine 65 ■ Delinquency in Columbus 65 ■ The National Youth Survey 65 ■ Conclusions from Cohort Studies 65
	Juvenile Victimization	66
	Conclusions 69 ■ Self-Test 69 ■ Discussion Questions 70
	■ Endnotes 70

section 2

Explaining Delinquency

chapter 3	Early Explanations: Supernatural and Classical School Theories	79
	What Theories Are	80
	Components of Theories	80 ■ Scholars and Theories 81
	The Supernatural School	82
	The Classical School	83
	Principles of the Classical School	83 ■ Cesare Beccaria 84 ■ Jeremy Bentham 86
	The Neoclassical School	87
	Empirical Tests of Classical Theory	88
	Are Human Beings Rational?	89 ■ Why Are Offenders Punished? 91
	■ How Are Offenders Punished?	92 ■ Does Punishment Work? 93 ■ Can Punishment Fit the Crime? 98
	Conclusions	98 ■ Self-Test 99 ■ Discussion Questions 100
	■ Endnotes	100
chapter 4	Biological Theories	105
	The Scientific Study of Crime	107
	Physical Appearance and Crime	108
	Cesare Lombroso	108 ■ Enrico Ferri 108 ■ Raffaele Garofalo 110 ■ Charles Goring 111 ■ Earnest Hooton 111
	Body Type and Crime	113
	William Sheldon	113 ■ James Q. Wilson and Richard Herrnstein 115
	Heredity and Crime	116
	Genes, Environment, and Behavior	118 ■ Twin Studies 119 ■ Adoption Studies 121
	Antisocial Personality Disorder and Crime	122
	Attention-Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder and Crime	126
	Biochemical Factors and Crime	127
	Psychopharmacological Inducements	127 ■ Sex Hormones 128 ■ Toxic Elements 129
	Chromosomal Abnormalities and Crime	130
	Conclusions	131 ■ Self-Test 132 ■ Discussion Questions 134
	■ Endnotes	134
chapter 5	Psychological Theories	141
	Psychoanalysis	142
	Sigmund Freud	142 ■ Erik Erikson 145 ■ Psychoanalytic Theory and Delinquency 147 ■ Assessment of Psychoanalytic Theory 148

Behaviorism	148
Ivan Pavlov 149 ■ B. F. Skinner 152 ■ Assessment of Behaviorist Theory 154
Social Learning	154
Julian Rotter 155 ■ Albert Bandura 156 ■ Assessment of Social Learning Theory 158
Moral Development	158
Jean Piaget 159 ■ Lawrence Kohlberg 161 ■ Assessment of Moral Development Theory 162
Conclusions 164 ■ Self-Test 165 ■ Discussion Questions 166
■ Endnotes 166

chapter 6 Sociological Theories: The Chicago School 171

The Chicago School	172
Frederic Thrasher 173 ■ Clifford Shaw and Henry McKay 173 ■ Edwin Sutherland 181 ■ Walter Miller 185
Conclusions 189 ■ Self-Test 190 ■ Discussion Questions 191
■ Endnotes 191

chapter 7 Sociological Theories: Strain and Social Control 195

Strain Theory	196
Robert Merton 196 ■ Albert Cohen 199 ■ Richard Cloward and Lloyd Ohlin 202 ■ Assessment of Strain Theory 206
Social Control Theory	208
F. Ivan Nye 208 ■ Walter Reckless 211 ■ David Matza 212 ■ Travis Hirschi 215 ■ Michael Gottfredson and Travis Hirschi 220 ■ Assessment of Social Control Theory 221
Conclusions 222 ■ Self-Test 223 ■ Discussion Questions 224
■ Endnotes 225

chapter 8 Sociological Theories: Labeling and Conflict 231

Labeling Theory	232
Frank Tannenbaum 233 ■ Edwin Lemert 234 ■ Howard Becker 235 ■ Edwin Schur 237 ■ John Braithwaite 238 ■ Evaluation of Labeling Theory 239 ■ Assessment of Labeling Theory 242
Conflict Theory	242
Thorsten Sellin 243 ■ George Vold 244 ■ Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels 245 ■ Willem Bonger 246 ■ Richard Quinney 247 ■ Harold Pepinsky 248 ■ Robert Regoli and John Hewitt 249 ■ Jeff Ferrell 250 ■ Research on Contemporary Conflict Theories 251 ■ Assessment of Conflict Theory 254
Conclusions 255 ■ Self-Test 256 ■ Discussion Questions 257
■ Endnotes 257

section 3

The Social and Institutional Context of Delinquency

chapter 9	The Family and Delinquency	265
	Traditional Functions of the Family	267
	The Socialization of Children 267 ■ Reproduction and Regulation of Sexual Activity 267 ■ Provision of Material, Physical, and Emotional Security 267
	The Changing Family	268
	Single-Parent Families 268 ■ Broken Homes 271 ■ Single Parents, the Broken Home, and Delinquency 272 ■ Working Mothers and Latchkey Children 276 ■ Power-Control Theory 277
	Parenting in Families	279
	Parenting Skills 279 ■ Parental Supervision 283 ■ Parenting Styles 284 ■ Parental Attachment 285 ■ Parental Criminality 286
	Conclusions 287 ■ Self-Test 288 ■ Discussion Questions 289
	■ Endnotes 289
 chapter 10	 Schools and Delinquency	 295
	School Authority and Student Rights	297
	Rules of Conduct 297 ■ Searches and Seizures 297 ■ Free Expression 299 ■ Expulsion and Suspension of Students 300
	Order and Disorder in Schools	302
	Student Misbehavior 302 ■ School Violence 302 ■ School Dropouts 311 ■ Delinquency and Dropouts 312
	Schools and Delinquency: Four Theories	313
	Loss of Teacher Authority 313 ■ Regimentation and Revenge 315 ■ Tracking 316 ■ IQ and Delinquency 318
	Research on Schools and Delinquency	323
	Conclusions 326 ■ Self-Test 327 ■ Discussion Questions 328
	■ Endnotes 328
 chapter 11	 Peer Groups and Gang Delinquency	 335
	Peer Groups	336
	The Growing Importance of Peer Groups 336 ■ Youth Subculture 336 ■ The Downside of Peer Groups 337 ■ A Reassuring View of Youths 338
	Peers and Group Delinquency	339
	Gangs and Gang Delinquency	340
	Problems in Defining Gangs 341 ■ Characteristics of Gangs 343
	The Contemporary Gang Problem	347
	Racial and Ethnic Variations in Gangs 348 ■ Gang Violence 352 ■ The Spread of Gang Violence 354 ■ The Rise of Entrepreneurial Gangs 355

Female Gang Delinquency	356
Gang Suppression and Intervention Strategies	358
Suppression 359 ■ Intervention and Prevention 362
Conclusions 364 ■ Self-Test 365 ■ Discussion Questions 366
■ Endnotes 366

chapter 12 Drugs, Youths, and Delinquency 373

The Drug Crisis	374
The Emergence of the Crisis 375 ■ Perceptions of the Drug Problem in the 1990s 376
Drug Use and Control in Historical Perspective	377
Racism and Early Drug Legislation 378 ■ Drug Use and Control since the 1960s 381
Adolescent Drug Use Today	383
Measuring Adolescent Drug Use 383 ■ Trends in Drug Use among High School Seniors 384 ■ Current Adolescent Drug Use 387 ■ Changes in Adolescent Attitudes toward Drugs 388
Causes of Adolescent Drug Use	390
Double Failure by the Individual 390 ■ Learning to Use Drugs 391
■ Weakening of Social Controls 391 ■ Socialization into Drug Use by the Subculture 392 ■ Family Conflict 393
Drug Use and Delinquency	394
Drugs and Delinquency 394 ■ Drugs, Delinquent Friends, and Delinquency 395
Responding to Adolescent Drug Use	396
Punitive, or Law Enforcement, Response 396 ■ Education, Prevention, and Treatment 398 ■ Decriminalization 401 ■ Changing Lives and Environments 404
Conclusions 405 ■ Self-Test 406 ■ Discussion Questions 407
■ Endnotes 407

chapter 13 Female Delinquency 413

Growing Up Female	414
The Development of Girls' Gender Roles 415 ■ Girls' Identities 417
Nature of Female Delinquency	419
Patterns of Female Delinquency 419 ■ Sexual Offenses 421 ■ Status Offenses 422 ■ Property Offenses 424 ■ Violent Offenses 424 ■ Are Girls Catching Up? 426
Explanations of Female Delinquency	428
Biological and Developmental Theories 429 ■ Sociological Theories and Female Delinquency 433 ■ Marxist and Feminist Theories 436
Conclusions 439 ■ Self-Test 440 ■ Discussion Questions 441
■ Endnotes 442

chapter 14 Youth Violence 449

The Nature and Extent of Youth Violence	451
Patterns of Youth Violence 453 ■ Children as Victims of Violence 458

The Role of Firearms in Youth Violence	460
Guns and Violence 461 ■ Carrying and Possessing Guns 461 ■ Getting Guns 462 ■ Using Guns 463 ■ Guns, Gangs, and Drugs 466
Violence Prevention	467
Guns and the Media 467 ■ Reducing Violence in Families 470 ■ Preventing School Violence 471 ■ Community-Based Prevention Programs 472 ■ Treatment and "Get-Tough" Approaches 474
Conclusions 477 ■ Self-Test 478 ■ Discussion Questions 479
■ Endnotes 480

section 4

The Juvenile Justice System

chapter15	Police and Delinquency	487
	Police in Society	488
	Police History 488 ■ Police Systems 490 ■ Police Organizations 491 ■ Police Functions 492
	Police, Children, and the Law	493
	Searches and Seizures 494 ■ Arrest 494 ■ Booking 495 ■ Custodial Interrogation and Lineups 497
	Police Discretion	497
	Police-Juvenile Encounters 498 ■ Legal Factors 499 ■ Extralegal Factors 502
	Conclusions 515 ■ Self-Test 516 ■ Discussion Questions 518
	■ Endnotes 518
chapter16	The Juvenile Court	523
	The Processing of Juvenile Offenders	524
	Arrest 526 ■ Court Intake 526 ■ Detention 528 ■ Court Hearings 532
	Constitutional Protections in Juvenile Court	536
	Kent v. United States 537 ■ In re Gault 538 ■ In re Winship 540 ■ McKeiver v. Pennsylvania 540 ■ Breed v. Jones 542 ■ Schall v. Martin 542 ■ Stanford v. Kentucky 542
	Public Access to Juvenile Court Proceedings and Records	544
	Right to Public Hearings 544 ■ Confidentiality of Juvenile Records 545 ■ Media Involvement 545 ■ Destruction of Records 547
	The Transfer of Serious Offenders to Criminal Court	548
	Reasons for Transferring Juveniles 549 ■ Legal Criteria for Transfer 549 ■ The Transfer Process 551 ■ Double Jeopardy 553
	Conclusions 554 ■ Self-Test 555 ■ Discussion Questions 556
	■ Endnotes 556

chapter17 The Juvenile Diversion 561

Questions about Juvenile Diversion	562
What Is Diversion? 562 ■ Who Should Be Diverted? 563 ■ When Should Youths Be Diverted? 565 ■ Where Should Youths Be Diverted? 565
Some Early Diversion Programs	566
Types of Police Diversion	566
Diversion Without Referral 567 ■ Diversion with Referral 567
Court Diversion Alternatives	570
Informal Adjustment 570 ■ Mediation 571 ■ Youth Service Bureaus 572 ■ Community Youth Boards 574 ■ Wilderness Programs 575
The Impact of Diversion on the Juvenile Justice System	577
Increased Efficiency 577 ■ Increased Effectiveness 580 ■ Ensuring Due Process 581
Conclusions 582 ■ Self-Test 583 ■ Discussion Questions 585
■ Endnotes 585

chapter18 Juvenile Corrections 589

Alternatives to Institutionalization	590
Probation 591 ■ Home Confinement and Electronic Monitoring 591 ■ Fines and Resitution 593 ■ Boot Camps 594 ■ Duration of Disposition Orders 595 ■ Revocation of Probation and Changes in Disposition Orders 595 ■ Parole 596
Confinement of Juvenile Offenders	596
Patterns in the Institutionalization of Juveniles 597 ■ Conceptual Models 600 ■ Living in Custody 605
Institutions for Girls	607
Social Organization 607 ■ Inmate Roles 609
Correctional Evaluation	611
The Focus of Evaluation Research 611 ■ Recidivism as an Evaluative Criterion 611 ■ Reviews of Evaluation Research 612
The Hidden System of Social Control	614
The Death Penalty and Juveniles	615
Characteristics of Juveniles on Death Row 616 ■ Should Juvenile Offenders Be Executed? 616
Conclusions 618 ■ Self-Test 619 ■ Discussion Questions 621
■ Endnotes 621

Appendix: Selected Amendments to the United States

Constitution	A-1
Glossary	G-1
Answer Key to Self-Tests	K-1
Photo Credits	P-1
Indexes
Legal Case Index	I-1
Name and Company Index	I-4
Subject Index	I-15